

Evaero, Inc. donation supports math tutoring for CPS girls.

TUCSON, Arizona, April 14, 2010 -- Evaero, Inc. (www.evaero.com) made a donation to Aviva Children's Services (www.avivatucson.org) to provide math tutoring to girls in the custody of Child Protective Services.

Supporting a belief that mathematics can empower women and recognizing a need for after hours tutoring services within Child Protective Services, Evaero, Inc. made a donation to Aviva Children's Services for this purpose. Aviva is a Tucson based non-profit agency that provides a variety of support services to children who have experienced abuse, neglect, or poverty and are in the custody of Child Protective Services. This initial donation is expected to provide over 150 hours of after school math tutoring support for girls in the care of CPS.

Founded in 1982 by a woman, Evaero Inc. (www.evaero.com) has served the aerospace industry for nearly 30 years with high-precision machined components and assemblies. Evaero, Inc. is an ISO/AS registered company.
